MAYSVILLE COAL COMPANY

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

Is It Warm Enough for You?

Too warm? Well, why don't you have an awning put over that window or porch! Yes, we sell them. Have adjustable awnings that can be made to fit any size window. Can take the measurements of your porch or store and have an awning put up in less time than it takes you to make up your mind to have it put up. Try us.

A Car of "Old Hickory" Wagons!

Just received. Enough said. All intelligent farmers know about the "Old Hickory."

KU-KLUX DAYS

Recalled by the Dastardly Work of Regulators--- Mason County's Good Name at Stake

If reports be true conditions in Mason county are going back to the disgraceful days of the Ku-Klux, when unlawful men took affairs in their own hands and regulated matters according to the code of the midnight prowler.

Sunday night, so it is reported this morning, a band of men visited the home of Perry Dillon, who lives in the Pleasant Ridge neighborhood and were about to lash him for striking and abusing his wife.

He proved his innocence of the charge by his wife declaring that the accusation was entirely false and that her husband was good and kind to her.

It seems the information was given the band by one Bogie Humphreys of the same neighborhood and in order to teach him a lesson about lying and spreading false reports, the gang of raiders and regulators adjourned from the home of Dillon to that of Humphreys, where, it is alleged, he was given a first-class castigation and warned not to do so again.

A fine rain fell here last night.

Fresh Stock No. 1 Flooring $3.90, No. 2 Flooring $2.40. OHIO RIVER LUMBER CO., Incorporated.

The examining trial of Oscar Carr, charged with cutting James Gray with intent to kill, was called in the Police Court yesterday and postponed until tomorrow on motion of the defense.

Mrs. D. A. Williams, who died Sunday at her home in Mason county, will be interred this morning at 11 o'clock at Mayslick, with the funeral services at the Christian Church in that place.

Last night during the rain a can can was held under the shed and by the glare of the electric light at the L. and N. Depot. It was interrupted by the appearance of the Police and gathering in of a part of the merry-makers.

Messrs. Ben Cole and Bayless Wilson appeared in Squire Pickrell's Court yesterday and gave bond in the sum of $200 each for their appearance this afternoon to answer to the warrant sworn out by Samuel Rigdon, charging them as the guilty ones who took part in the assault upon Rigdon Monday morning.

One hundred members of the Louisville Commercial Club will go to Cynthiana next Friday evening to meet the merchants of that city. They will travel on their special train, with brass band, and after remaining there several hours, they will come to Maysville, continuing their tour of this section of the State.

TOKEN OF APPRECIATION

Handsome Loving Cup to be Presented to Miss Alice Lloyd

Shelbyville Sentinel.

There has been on exhibition in the show-window of A. Rotchild & Son a splendid silver loving cup, intended for presentation to Miss Alice Lloyd, the brilliant champion of organized farmers against the Trust. It is sixteen inches high, including its ebony base.

In the three areas of its surface formed by the three handles are engraved very appropriate designs and lettering. The story of the gift is told thereon as follows:

Presented to Miss Alice Lloyd,
by citizens of
Henry and Shelby counties in appreciation of able efforts for Farmers and
"The Men in Brown Jeans."
June, 1908.

In other space appears a full grown tobacco plant in the flower. The original drawing for this engraving was made by the talented wife of Mr. John W. Thomas, Jr., and shows genuine skill and artistic taste.

The third space is occupied by the seal of Kentucky, beautifully engraved—the well known form of two men standing encircled by the legend "United we stand, divided we fall."

The idea of presenting the token and of making it an expression from the hearts of farmers in this locality was originated and carried out by John W. Thomas, Jr. Contributions were spontaneous. If intrinsic value had been the primary idea, Mr. Thomas could have raised money for a much more costly offering; but mere silver or gold was not the prompting thought. On the contrary, it was to symbolize by an enduring but modest gift the affection of these people for their inspired defender, the value of which is above gems.

Attention of wheat raisers is directed to the ad elsewhere of the Keystone Commercial Co.

Cartmel extracts teeth without pain

Friday before leaving on No. 2 for a visit to Rev. Felix K. Struve and family at Ashland, the French poodle dog of Mrs. James H. Hall was placed in the care of the baggage-master of the train. Between Manchester and Concord the dog released himself from his chain, and leaped from the moving train. It is not known whether he was injured or not. The name of the owner, as well as the name of the dog, "Honey Boy," is engraved on the collar and inquiry has been instituted by the railroad authorities to discover the whereabouts of the acrobatic canine.

THEATRIUM.

"Ben Hur" pleased crowded houses last night as usual. Tonight we will present "Ups and Downs of a Hat," "Modern Hercules at Work" and "Your Wife is Unfaithful to Us," three good ones, something that will please every one. Admission 5 cents.

THE LAST CHANCE

With the end of this week our unprecedented sale of $10, $12 and $15 Suits at $7.50 closes. See them on those that bought and are now wearing them. During this week Hanan Oxford Shoes, in kid, vici, black and tan, $4. Daily arrivals of Negligee Shirts and Light Underwear. These are late purchases and afford you better qualities at no more money than earlier purchases. We have yet about ten dozen of Lord & Taylor's best 50c fancy Half Hose; your choice 3 pairs for $1; all sizes. Last Saturday again demonstrated that we are headquarters for GOOD SHOES.

Please remember, store closes at 6 o'clock except Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schuck of Cincinnati have been visiting Miss Effie Jackson of Phister avenue.

Fifth Ward Daily Meat Market, Hill & Lingenfelter, 500 East Second street. All kinds of fresh meat. Give us a call.

The White Sale Reigns

To view the stock of Muslin Underwear here you wouldn't think a week's busy selling has been credited to this sale. The range of prices is intact and the choice of styles unimpaired. The past week has proved several interesting things about this sale:

FIRST—It's the largest movement of the sort in Maysville, in point of space denoted to it.

SECOND—It presents the best variety of new and tasteful designs in garments, embroidery and lace.

THIRD—It offers the best values at any price you may choose for comparison.

Broad, sweeping statements—don't think them brag and bluster—the garments themselves and your own judgment of values will confirm our assertions.

Here is the bulletin-board of the sale. For convincing details see the stock.

Combination Garments $1.98 to $4.
Corset Covers 12c to $3.
Nightgowns 50c to $4.
Chemise 59c to $3.
Drawers 25c to $3.
Skirts 98c to $7.

SKIRT NEWS

Handsome black silk petticoats, made for us during the manufacturer's dull season—hence qualities of extraordinary value for $3.98. A special feature is the fitted top, which is a welcome point in this day of tight dress skirts. The flounce is a deep sectional one trimmed in strap bands. A double under ruffle for dust and wear protection is another good point. If you are interested in rare skirt values, investigate.

FOR CONGRESS,
Hon. JOSEPH B. BENNETT.

THE Democrats have awakened to the fact that the Brownsville affair is loaded.

LUCKY Indiana. BILLY BRYAN will make but one speech in that happy State during the campaign.

NO MORE thrusts and jabs and such other pet names for GEORGE FRED WILLIAMS from Marse HENRY.

HAPPY thought for the day: "If" Mr. BRYAN desires to make a success and $300 per he should stick to the Chautauqua platform.

THE HON. WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN says he wants but one term of the Presidency, but no man ever wanted one term worse than he does.

It is said that no man ever climbed the ladder of Fame with his hands in his pockets. Also, never attempt to climb the ladder of Fame with your hands in some other man's pockets.

WHAT is the use of worrying over the "good old times?" "All times are good when old," says Lord BYRON, and our times will soon be old and then they will be the best of any we ever had.

It is a relief to note that the medical schools of Louisville have united at last, at last.

THE safest and most profitable platform for Mr. BRYAN to stand upon is the Chautauqua platform.

A VOTE for W. J. BRYAN means 20-cent corn and 50-cent wheat. BRYAN's success means drought and blight to all commercial commodities.

"If" Mr. BRYAN is elected President his case of "exaggerated ego" will become so alarming that it will take a Philadelphia doctor to tell what's the matter with him.

WILLIAM JENNINGS' love of the Negro and his indorsement of the Brownsville ruling of President ROOSEVELT don't appear to harmonize. As a gum shoe vote getter the Peerless One often gets his feet entangled in the political mud.

SO FAR as possible we should preserve the markets of the United States for the wage earners of the United States. So far as possible we should preserve the chance to earn a daily wage to the wage earners of the United States. Self-preservation is the first law of nature, and Protection is our weapon and our shield.

THE American Steel Trust has practically closed a contract with the Russian Government to furnish $25,000,000 worth of steel rails for double tracking the great Trans-Siberian Railroad. The contract is the largest ever given for steel rails. The double-tracking project of the longest railroad in the world will cost nearly $100,000,000.

A BARNYARD QUESTION.

August Farm Journal.

Johnny: "Does the hen sit or set?"

Ma: "I don't know or care, but when she cackles I want to know whether she's laying or lying."

She Was the One Girl

There isn't much in life for me any more. There might have been. I am pretty sure that if she had loved me it would have been different. She would have given a rose-colored tint to the universe.

A four room flat with her would have been equal to a palace of jasper and sard—whatever that is—and brown stone. A canary in the front bay window would have been equal to a grove of nightingales. Twenty dollars down to an instalment house would have given me all the luxurious velvet piled rugs, pictures, statuary, bric-a-brac, tapestries and hangings that I needed. A half pound of cold ham, a dime's worth of Saratoga chips and a bottle of milk in the ice-box on the porch would have been a worthy equivalent of the larders, cellars and $5,000 chefs of the rich and great. But now!

She strung me. She did it to the queen's taste. She made me think I was all the table condiments and the after lunch mints. She did this for months. Then the little gong on the top of the clock breaks loose, and I wake up and rub my eyes.

It wasn't me. Not at all. I was regarded in the light of a very dear friend—who was willing to fall for the price 'most any old evening. Billy Chandler was the real bales of costly merchandise. Billy!

It was her eyes and her hair—just hers—her laugh and the way she moved that got me razzle-dazzled. There's somewhere in the neighborhood of 'steen billion girls floating around loose, but there isn't anything just exactly like her. That's what's the trouble with me.

Well, I've got to buck up and bear it. Guess I'll go around to the drug store and get a cigar and then stroll down to the sad lake waves and think some more large thoughts. A fellow can't think with ragtime playing in the room below. Not the kind of thinks I'm having.

Three days gone by. I'm still alive, but I didn't expect to do the frog act anyway. It's going to simmer down to a dull ache after a little. I'll have a feeling like the parquet at five-thirty on a matinee afternoon, according to the best authorities, and that will stay with me for the rest of my days.

I wonder what that is they're playing now! It's a new one to me. Yes, it's going to be one great goneness for Willie. Some of these days when I can bear the pain I shall chase myself around to where Mrs. Chandler lives and see a golden-haired little child skipping the rope on the pavement outside or tripping a measure to the strains of the piano organ. She will have her mother's eyes.

I shall say: "Little one, tell mamma that an old friend would like to see her." And she'll come down looking as if she's just about all in and with only a pathetic suggestion of her former beauty. After awhile she will say: "And you never married?"

"Never once," I shall say. "There was only one woman in the world for me." Then she'll blush and—

I guess I do not know what that is, too. They seem to be whooping it up down there. I wonder if I'd be considered fresh if I kicked in? I was to have the privileges of the parlor with the other boarders, so I don't see why not. Those drug store cigars are pretty bum.

Wonder if that Miss Kessick isn't in the bunch. She isn't real horrid to look at, anyway.

It doesn't cut any ice with me, of course, but she certainly is the real Michigan specialty, sun-ripened and just as good with the red mosquito bar off as with it on. If I had only met her about six months ago there's no telling. But I'm spoiled for anything else now. The dull ache has set in, and unless I'm thinking of something else, it stays right with me, just like Miss Libby says.

Kessick! Funny thing I never took any particular notice of her until last week. I guess I must have been tolerable busy since I came here. She certainly isn't like the factory made article, isn't little Margaret. There's something to her. She's a mixer, all right, and she'll stand for a joshing and not linger at the come back.

And, while you're talking, that girl has got eyes that somebody ought to put smoked glass over in the interests of the public safety. I've seen eyes before, but—I don't suppose I ought to buy her candy on a short acquaintance, but the candy money I've been saving the last week or two certainly ought to have an outlet somewhere. After a short while, when the bunch gets together, I must spring myself for ice cream at the drug store as a kind of starter. I've got to do something evenings.

That drug clerk is a wise boy. He's on to his job, all right. "No, we haven't any of that in stock. We don't carry it anymore, anyway. Here's something that doesn't cost as much and it's every bit as good. I think myself it's a little better. It won't hurt to try it, anyway. People get in the habit of taking some one thing and they think there isn't anything else will do, and that's where they're wrong. You try this. It won't be but a little while, till you just swear by it."

I wonder. I'm a little leary of 'em, but I don't believe she's the kind of girl that would string a fellow, and she could string 'em plenty if she wanted to. You can't beat her for looks.

Here goes for the candy, anyway.

TRAXEL'S

AGENTS FOR HUYLER'S.

The Keystone Commercial Company is enlarging its already commodious quarters at the corner of Third and Sutton streets with a brick addition, 50x20.

Miss Annie Daugherty, the popular Day Clerk at the New Central Hotel, is enjoying a well earned vacation with relatives and friends in Newport, Covington and Cincinnati.

Mr. Basil Duke of Cincinnati, and an old Maysville boy and one of the most popular Commercial Tourists on the road, was here yesterday, the first time for many moons.

MISS CARRIE BELLE MORFORD.

Miss Carrie Belle Morford, oldest daughter of Mr. John R. Morford, died at Spears' Hospital in Dayton, Ky., yesterday at 6:10 p. m., of heart disease and dropsy, from which she had been an intense sufferer for years.

Her home was in Covington, and she was 36 years of age.

Besides her father, she leaves two brothers, Charles I. and Edwin, both of Covington, and one sister, Mrs. J. Harry Richardson of this city.

Deceased was born in Maysville and grew to womanhood here. She was a lifelong member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and attended regularly when her health permitted.

The time of the funeral is not known, but her remains will be brought here and the services held in the Third Street M. E. Church, with Rev. G. W. Euntun in charge.

The burial will take place in the Maysville Cemetery.

HEED THE WARNING

It May Save You Dollars When You Can Afford to Part With Them

Residents along the river front, especially those residing East of Limestone Creek, are very indignant and are raising a howl about youths and boys bathing in the Ohio river in a nude state and they protest vigorously as to the foul language used by these violators of the law.

The law in regard to bathing reads as follows:

"That any person naked, or without being clad in a bathing suit or other garb, concealing the body from the shoulders to the knees, who shall bathe in the Ohio river in front of the city, or in any public or exposed place in the city at any time between 4 a. m. and 8 p. m., shall be fined not exceeding $10."

Now, there you are. If arrested for a violation of the Ordinance don't plead ignorant of the law.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

No other medicine for Woman's ills in the world has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

No other medicine has such a record of success for woman's diseases, or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, Inflammation, Ulceration, and consequent Spinal Weakness.

It has relieved more cases of Backache and Local Weaknesses than any other one remedy. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development.

Irregularities and periodic pains, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility, quickly yield to it; also deranged organs, causing pain, dragging sensations and backache. Under all circumstances it acts in harmony with the female system.

It removes that wearing feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues." These are indications of feminine disorders, which this medicine overcomes as well as slight derangement of the Kidneys of either sex.

Women who are sick and want to get well should refuse to accept any substitute for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The Ledger is THE Local Paper.

There's been a terrible fall in the prices of those new Spring Suits, so if you want to buy a Suit that will fit you, be stylish, hold its shape and wear more than extraordinarily well, now is the time for you to buy.

3. What are the benefits and dangers of class organization?

4. Is rivalry between schools or classes desirable or profitable?

5. For what length of time should a Superintendent be elected?

6. How may we induce scholars to attend the preaching services?

7. What are the essential features of a model Sunday-school building?

8. What are the most serious existing drawbacks to our Sunday-school work?

9. What would you do with an earnest, faithful, Christian teacher who cannot hold the scholars?

10. Which is the better, to increase the enrollment or increase the attendance?

11. What are the essentials of good discipline?

12. At what age should the temperance pledge be taken?

13. Should a man who is not a Christian teach a class?

14. How would you increase attendance?

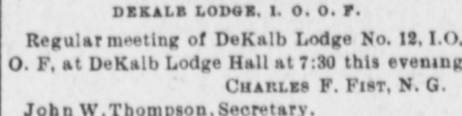

15. How can a school be graded which meets in one room?

Workmen are engaged this morning in cutting down Lee street, giving it a more uniform grade. When completed it will be a pretty little street.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Mayville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. John E. Burns, living in the Western part of Mayville, Ky., says: "I value Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly today as when I gave a statement in their favor some years ago. Prior to their use I was subject to frequent attacks of kidney trouble. At times the pain in my back was so acute that I was rendered almost helpless and confined to my bed for days at a time. The quick and decided relief I obtained from Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, was very gratifying, and during the years which have elapsed I have had no serious return of kidney trouble. On some occasions I have felt a slight backache, but a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to ward off any serious trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
